Engaging Community: The Heart of Yankee Security Convention

Community engagement and volunteer work are the cornerstones of a vibrant society. At Yankee Security Convention, we hold these values close to our hearts, understanding the profound impact they have on both individuals and the locksmithing community.

Since our inception in 1978, we have been driven by the belief that giving back and actively participating in charitable endeavors can transform lives and elevate our industry. Read on to learn how you can make a difference!

Yankee Security Convention is not just a convention—it is a commitment to support and advance the locksmith trade. Formed by a dedicated group of New England locksmiths, our not-for-profit corporation was established to offer educational seminars and foster the progression of the locksmith profession. Entirely run by volunteers, our convention stands as a testament to the power of collective effort in serving our community.

One of the pillars of our mission is the Yankee Scholarship Foundation. This initiative embodies our dedication to educational support for locksmiths and their families. Through the Foundation, we aim to provide opportunities for learning and growth within the locksmith industry. By nurturing talent and providing educational resources, we strive to ensure a bright future for aspiring locksmiths and their loved ones.

Volunteering, whether in running a convention, running a food pantry, or organizing a local toy drive for the holidays, holds immense importance as part of our local communities. It is about being part of something larger than ourselves, contributing to a cause that resonates deeply with our values. The dedication and hard work put forth by volunteers exemplify the spirit of generosity and unity, shaping a community rooted in compassion and support.

If you are enthusiastic about community engagement, interested in available scholarships, or wish to explore the impactful work undertaken by the Yankee Security Convention, we encourage you to reach out to our Board of Directors at info@yankeesecurity.org.
